

West University of Timisoara (Late) Summer School

West University of Timisoara is organizing the 2nd Edition of West University of Timisoara (Late) Summer School (August 31st - September 13th 2020), a multi- and inter-disciplinary event aiming to offer Bachelor or Master students the opportunity to participate in a two-weeks study/training programme, taking place in the future cultural capital of Europe (Timisoara 2021), with the possibility of choosing from a variety of courses that mirror the comprehensive character of our university. We welcome applications until June 15th and we kindly ask you to forward this e-mail to your students, together with the attached flyer.

West University of Timisoara (Late) Summer School courses:

- Design Thinking, your path to innovation!
- Biochemistry aspects in various medical conditions
- Cultural geography and cultural tourism
- Proactive Involvement for Better Communities
- Taxation and Accounting in the Digital Era and Global Economy
- Practical cases in Behavioural finance
- Capital Market Risk Management
- Getting the changemaker mindset: reinvent yourself as a social entrepreneur
- History of the universe and cosmology
- Leadership competencies and the future of work
- Public Speaking Strategies
- Introduction to Romanian language, culture and civilization
- Security and Cryptography
- Presentation skills and nonverbal communication
- Mass media and public relations - techniques and strategies
- Team-work skills through urban sociology field research in Timisoara

Participation fee (150 EURO): accommodation in WUT dormitories, lunches and a registration kit.

More information about applying to WUT (late) summer school at: <http://ri.uvt.ro/west-university-of-timisoara-late-summer-school/>