CALL FOR PAPERS

The 19th Symposium of Students in English

We are pleased to announce that The 19th Symposium of Students in English will be organised by the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures on 21-22 March, 2014. The event is open to undergraduates and MA students who take an interest in research connected to any aspect of British and American studies (literature, language, culture, teaching).

As this year's edition brings together two of the Department's events, the Symposium of Students in English and The American Studies Day, explorations of the American sphere and its connections to the rest of the English-speaking world are particularly encouraged.

Proposals for presentations or workshops should be submitted by 1 March 2014.

Participants from other universities will be contacted via e-mail for details on accommodation, arrival and program.

We intend to publish a selection of the papers presented at the conference.

There are two ways to register:

- Students from Timisoara should submit their paper proposals at the Department of Foreign Languages of Literatures/ English, room 422 (University of the West).
- Students from other cities should fill in the registration form below and send it to studentsymposiumtm@gmail.com
